A thrilling, contemporary adaptation of Pushkin's timeless poem and Tchaikovsky's renowned opera, Onegin features a high-energy musical score to tell a sweeping tale of unrequited love, infatuation, and intrigue. When the young and innocent Tatyana falls in love with the self-obsessed aristocrat Onegin, he firmly rejects her, arousing passionate love letters, noble duels and second chances.

Pre-Show chats take place 45 minutes before each performance in the Berkeley Street Theatre lobby.
