WEDNESDAY and SUNDAY Matinees Available

Coming of age may not be easy—but it sure can be hilarious

Neil Simon's Brighton Beach Memoirs is a coming of age story about Eugene Morris Jerome, a 15-year-old growing up in 1930's Brooklyn who thinks of little else but playing for the Yankees...and girls. Eugene's witty commentary about his life, his overworked father, his overbearing mother, his overconfident brother and his overly gorgeous cousin, makes this tender journey through young adulthood both poignant and joyful.
